INTERESTED?

Like people, occupations have traits or characteristics. These characteristics give important clues about the nature of the work and work environment, and give you an opportunity to match your own personal interests to a specific occupation. When you choose a job in an occupation that matches your own interests you have taken an important step in planning a successful and rewarding career.

The occupation of Police, Fire and Ambulance Dispatcher has Social and Conventional characteristics as described below:

Social — Social occupations frequently involve working with, communicating with, and teaching people. These occupations often involve helping or providing service to others.

Conventional — Conventional occupations frequently involve following set procedures and routines. These occupations can include working with data and details more than with ideas. Usually there is a clear line of authority to follow.

LICENSURE, REGISTRATION, OR CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Generally this is not required for Dispatcher positions to be hired in state government. However once employed, continued employment is contingent upon successful completion of CAD training. VA Criminal Investigation Network Operator Certification & Dispatcher Certification are expected.

The Virginia State Police requires an extensive background investigation, polygraph exam, limited physical, and fingerprint-based criminal history check. Other agencies may have similar requirements.
Also, there is a requirement that a dispatcher has either United States citizenship or have been a lawful resident of United States for past 10 consecutive years to apply for VCIN certification.

For further information on requirements and certification, contact the Virginia State Police: http://www.vsp.state.va.us/

EDUCATIONAL, TRAINING, AND LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

The Department of Labor provides the following information:

Police, fire, and ambulance dispatchers, also called public safety dispatchers, monitor the location of emergency services personnel from any one or all of the jurisdiction’s emergency services departments. These workers dispatch the appropriate type and number of units in response to calls for assistance. Dispatchers, or call takers, often are the first people the public contacts when emergency assistance is required. If certified for emergency medical services, the dispatcher may provide medical instruction to those on the scene of the emergency until the medical staff arrives.

The Virginia Department of State Police requires a dispatcher to maintain radio communication with patrol officers. Relay requests for assistance, complaints of disturbances & other incidents. Coordinate police, rescue & fire departments during an emergency. Provide information & other appropriate assistance to the public. Perform general clerical work as required.

The dispatcher must be able to operate 2-way radio system including VA Criminal Information Network terminal and National Crime Information and Law Enforcement Computer Teletype System. The dispatcher dispatches calls for service, both routine and emergency; Inputs, searches, retrieves information utilizing Teletype equipment and computer terminals; and Completes/maintains documentation of logs, rosters, and files.

The work hours include portions of evening, midnight shifts and weekends. The work is high volume and the environment is high pressure requiring the dispatcher to exercise sound judgment under stress.

High school diploma or equivalent or related experience in telecommunications is preferred.

COMMONWEALTH COMPETENCIES

Competencies are a set of identified behaviors, knowledge, skills, and abilities that directly and positively impact the success of employees and the organization. Competencies can be observed and measured. When consistently demonstrated, competencies make employees particularly effective in their work. Competencies help lay out a road map to career success. You can use the Commonwealth Competencies to help improve your individual performance by adopting behaviors that make high performing employees successful in their jobs. In this way, you can use the Commonwealth Competencies for your further professional development.
The Commonwealth Competencies are:

1. Technical and Functional Expertise
2. Understanding the Business
3. Achieving Results
4. Serving the Customer
5. Teamwork
6. Interpersonal and Communication Skills
7. Leadership and Personal Effectiveness

The above competencies may be applied to employees throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia. They can be rank-ordered by agencies and hiring managers to represent the needs of a specific job. The rank ordering will change depending upon the occupation, an organization's priorities, the actual job requirements, and the supervisor's preferences.

Career success is both about what you do (applying your technical knowledge, skills, and ability) and how you do it (the consistent behaviors you demonstrate and choose to use) while interacting and communicating with others. Hopefully, by studying the Commonwealth competencies, identifying your developmental opportunities, and working to refine your own competence, you can take charge of your career!

For additional information about the Commonwealth Competencies go to: http://jobs.state.va.us/cc_planningctr.htm. For the competencies, we first list the competencies and then define each. Finally, we list competency indicators; to describe what successful performance looks like.

COMMONWEALTH CAREER PATH

Career opportunities in the Commonwealth are not limited to moving “up” to the next highest role and pay band, changing positions, or to becoming a supervisor. That’s because most roles describe a broad group of occupationally related positions that perform a range of work that requires increased knowledge and skills. For that reason, Commonwealth roles describe the career paths within the same or higher-level role for the same or different Career Group. The broad salary range and the Commonwealth’s pay practices provide flexibility in recognizing career development and advancement. (Salary Structure)
